

Terms of Service

Last Updated: April 24, 2025

Welcome to Share.surf, a personal, non-commercial file-sharing platform created and maintained by Harvey Coombs, based in the United Kingdom. This site is offered as-is, free to use, and designed to make temporary file sharing quick and easy. By using Share.surf, you agree to the terms outlined below.

1. About Share.surf

Share.surf is a solo project run by Harvey Coombs, not a company or business. Its purpose is to serve as a lightweight and open file-sharing service for temporary file storage and distribution.

2. Donations

Share.surf is free to use, but if you'd like to support it, donations are welcome and go directly toward covering hosting costs, maintenance, and development.

Donating does not grant any special features or guarantees — it is purely a means of expressing appreciation and contributes towards maintenance of the project.

3. Advertising

To help support the costs of running the site, Share.surf displays third-party ads. These ads are served through advertising partners, which may use cookies or other tracking technologies to deliver relevant ads or measure performance.

Ads allow the site to remain free for everyone. If you prefer an ad-free experience, you're encouraged to support the project through a donation — although donations do not disable ads.

For more information on how ads may affect your data, please refer to the Privacy Policy.

4. File Storage and Retention

All files uploaded to Share.surf are automatically deleted after 30 days.

There is no long-term storage, archival, or backup. If a file is important, please ensure you save a copy elsewhere.

5. Acceptable Use

You agree not to use Share.surf to upload, share, or store content that:

- Is illegal under UK law or international law.
- Infringes copyright or intellectual property rights.
- Contains child sexual abuse material (CSAM) or any form of exploitative or abusive imagery.
- Is malicious (e.g. viruses, trojans, ransomware).

Files found to violate these terms will be removed, and access may be restricted or blocked.

6. Intellectual Property

You retain full ownership of the content you upload.

By using the service, you grant Share.surf a temporary, limited license to store and serve your files so they can be accessed via the links generated by the site.

If you're a copyright owner and believe your content has been uploaded without permission, please contact contact@harveycoombs.com to request removal.

7. Privacy

Share.surf does not require user accounts and aims to keep personal data collection to a minimum.

However, due to the use of third-party ads, some advertising partners may use cookies or similar technologies to personalise content or analyse traffic. This may include IP addresses, browser info, and general usage patterns.

Share.surf does not sell user data and does not engage in profiling. For full details, including your rights under the UK GDPR, please see the Privacy Policy.

8. Disclaimers

Share.surf is an individually run service. As such:

- There are no uptime guarantees.
- Files may be deleted at any time after 30 days, or earlier if required (e.g. for abuse).

- The site does not guarantee file privacy — shared links can be accessed by anyone with the URL.
- Harvey Coombs is not liable for any data loss, file misuse, or consequences from use of the site.

Use Share.surf at your own discretion.

9. Changes to the Service

This is an evolving project, and features or functionality may change over time.

Harvey Coombs reserves the right to remove files, restrict usage, display ads, or shut down the site entirely — especially in response to misuse, legal requirements, or technical limitations.

10. Terms Updates

These Terms may be updated from time to time. If major changes are made, a notice will be posted on the site. Continued use of the Service means you accept the most recent version of the Terms.

11. Contact

For support, takedown requests, or general questions, contact:
